Miss Josephine Eddings, of Moberly, Mo., was the inspiration for a delightful Mexican luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. Elsie Lurkins.

The walls of the dining room were effectively draped with Mexican blankets, and numbers of pieces of pottery carried out the idea.

Red, white and green ribbons—the national Mexican colors—extended the entire length of the luncheon table. A huge cactus formed the central decorative feature and the place cards were hand painted Mexican sombreroes. Tiny pieces of Mexican pottery were at each cover, and given as souvenirs. Those in attendance were: Misses Lucille Smith, Loretta Brick, Milda Connolly, Pauline Sprinz, Adine Noake, Pearl Berkly, Lillian Crawford, Ethel Brown, Essie Darbyshire, Mesdames H. E. Christie, J.
